

STABBED THREE TIMES.

A Wheeling Man Uses His Knife at Steubenville.

HIS BOARDING HOUSE KEEPER CUT

When He Interfered to Prevent the Man From Beating His Wife—John Ingler, the Cutter, in Jail on a Serious Charge as the Result of His Jealousy for His Wife.

Albert Welch, who runs a boarding house on Church street, at Steubenville, was stabbed three times last evening, with a knife in the hands of John Ingler, of Wheeling, whose mother's name is Rodgers.

Ingler went up to Steubenville two weeks ago with his wife and secured work with Contractor McDonald, on the new race track, through the assistance of Welch, with whom he had been boarding for a week.

Ingler was jealous of his wife and several times a day heaped abuse on her and threatened her life. He was prevented from doing her bodily harm by Welch and his wife.

Saturday night Ingler borrowed money from his wife to go to Martin's Ferry, but got drunk instead, and when he went home threatened to throw his wife out into the street, but was prevented.

Yesterday he started in to give her a beating, but Welch interfered and was cut on the cheek, arm and hand, but not seriously. Welch knocked him down with a broom handle and knucklers, and while Welch was gone for the police Ingler again attempted to beat his wife, who had fainted, but Mrs. Welch interfered and he knocked her down. Ingler is in jail.

Desperate Cutting Scrape.
Saturday afternoon about 3:30 Walter B. Hopton, of Bealsville, O., and James W. Case, a cigarmaker, of this city, had a quarrel on the Liberty and Case cut Hopton pretty badly with a pocket knife. One cut in the groin was especially severe. Hopton sought Case's hand and prevented worse injuries. He was taken to Dr. Dickey's office and his wounds dressed, after which he went home. Case gave himself up at police headquarters and Squire Gillespie sent him to jail. Yesterday he gave bail in $500 and was released. Hopton was put under recognizance in the sum of $100 for his appearance as a witness at the preliminary hearing next Friday.

MARTIN'S FERRY DEFEATED
By the Washington, Pa., Foot Ball Team Saturday.

Heavier men, more experienced players and luck on the part of the Washington eleven won the foot ball game for the Martin's Ferry club by a close score, 12 to 0. The first touch down was made only a quarter of a minute before time was called, and the second was by a fluke, but the referee, a Washington man, counted it.

The visiting team was composed of Linn, the captain of the Washington-Jefferson college team, and four other men of that crack organization and seven from the W. A. A., all heavy weights, and much heavier than Martin's Ferry. The Washington eleven was much stronger than the one that recently played Martin's Ferry, the one on Saturday consisting of W. B. Seamon, center; George Thompson, r. g.; William Hayes, l. g.; E. W. Frye, r. t.; D. Curran, l. t.; R. A. Sterrett, r. c.; J. P. Linn, l. e. and captain; C. C. Sterrett, q. b.; W. P. Hurst, l. h.; R. Gibson, r. h.; J. P. Brownlee, f. b.

Martin's Ferry was lighter than usual and short two of her best men. The team was as follows: Th. Gjertsen, Jess Hippius, Thomas Williams, Ed. Smith, Robert Edwards, H. Long, James Sweeney, C. C. Mitchell, Ed. McAninch, R. C. Montgomery, Al. Davis. With odds against her, Martin's Ferry played a remarkably strong game, and kept the ball in Washington's territory most of time. The visitors, who thoroughly understood foot ball playing, expected to have a walk-over, but were greatly mistaken and frightened by the superb work of the smaller men.

Martin's Ferry started with the ball with a fake "v" and worked clear up to the ten-yard line. Washington got the ball on four downs. They made three fair runs. The Martin's Ferry full back, who was given the ball for a thirty or thirty-five point, was forced down. This put the ball on the thirty-five yard line then within three or four minutes of time. After a desperate struggle Washington worked the ball barely over the line within fifteen seconds of the time.

Washington opened the second half by a flying wedge, and gained twenty yards. Seamon was sent over the bounds, and instead of running back to the point where he went over, and where Gjertsen, Long and Sweeney awaited his coming, he ran nearer the goal, downed there, and then made a touch-down. This was unfair, and a genuine fluke, but the referee counted it for Washington. This caused a great kick, and there was cause to kick, and kick hard. Martin's Ferry was on Washington territory most of the second half, and made gains by bucking. The tackling by Jim Sweeney won the admiration of everybody. It was simply great, if he did wear a white shirt and collar and pretty necktie. Washington's interference was faultless; in fact, all of her playing was.

Both sides worked rather slow on account of the awful condition of the field and a better game is not often seen. Linn, of the Wash-Jeff eleven, is one of the very best end players in Pennsylvania. He is the best in Western Pennsylvania. Sweeney held him down in good style. The touch-downs were made by Brownlee and Seamon and the goals by R. A. Sterrett.

For the first season the Martin's Ferry Y. M. C. A. team has made a splendid record for a club composed almost entirely of inexperienced players. It has shut out Wheeling three times, Steubenville once and Franklin college once. It beat Washington once and tied Beaver Falls. Its only defeats were by Wash-Jeff on Saturday and once by Beaver Falls, both close games.

No better preparation for the hair has ever been invented than Ayer's Hair Vigor. It restores the original color to faded and gray hair, and imparts that natural gloss and freshness everyone so much admires. Its reputation is world-wide.

BELLAIRE.
All Sorts of Local News and Gossip from the Glass City.

There is a very decided improvement in the general condition of affairs in this community. All of the industrial establishments are working and the earnings of the employees are at once placed with merchants and others in settling up deficiencies that came with the past few months' idleness and in providing for the winter. The effort to magnify the distress in this city is not warranted. There is not more of it than usual. With all the mills, factories, foundries, etc., in this and immediate vicinity running as fully as for a few years past there is not much idleness in Bellaire.

Councilman W. D. Jones has been chosen commander of Spangler Post, No. 99, G. A. R. J. W. Morrill, senior vice commander; Henry W. Kolla, jr. vice commander; W. H. Thompson, quartermaster; J. B. Gibson, surgeon; Thomas McClelland, chaplain; Dr. H. C. Kempe, officer of the day, and J. L. Lancaster, officer of the guard. J. W. Morrill is the delegate to the state encampment.

A gentleman deeply interested in the welfare of this city says it is unfortunate that new projects are being pushed just at this time, when everybody seems to be afraid of the future. With only a moderate outlook people are slow to invest their money, while in ordinary times they would be looking for a place to put it.

The movement to start a new flint glass factory here and also to revive the Bellaire window glass works is meeting with splendid encouragement here. The projectors are confident of success and it is quite cheerful to note the encouragement under the circumstances.

Bellaire Chapter, R. A. M., Black Prince lodge, Knights of Pythias, Bellaire lodge of Odd Fellows, Ohio Valley Council, Jr. O. U. A. M., and the Woman's Relief Corps all elected officers the latter part of last week.

The number of cases of grip is not growing beautifully less by any means, and all the physicians in town are kept busy, and a new one who dropped down from Wooster this week thinks of locating here.

John Stamm, great sachem, and Thomas J. Irwin, great chief of records, will visit the order of Bellaire Red Men this evening, and the local tribe will have quite a feast for their distinguished guests.

Mrs. Susan Myers, mother of J. H. Myers, who ran as the Democratic candidate for representative against Hon. J. C. Heinlein, died last Saturday in the eighty-seventh year of her age.

Mr. Charles J. Gill, of the Robinson Glass Company, at Zanesville, is home from a western trip and will remain until after the holidays.

The elegant residence built by John W. Coulson on Gravel hill is to be sold by the sheriff at St. Clairsville to-day.

There were four occupants of the lockup yesterday, the result of drunks and brawls Saturday night.

Mr. John DuBois and wife spent last Sabbath with relatives at West Alexander.

MOUNDSVILLE.
A Miscellaneous Melange of Minor Matters from Marshall's Metropolis.

Mrs. Margaret H. McGill was buried from her late home in the first ward yesterday. She was born February 29, 1805, in County Antrim, Ireland. Her maiden name was Hill. She married Patrick McGill in Ireland in 1825, and migrated to Philadelphia later. Fourteen children were born to them, only three of whom are living. The children living are James H., William and Letitia Charleston. The two sons reside here, William being a member of the city police force, and the daughter lives in Cincinnati. Samuel, another son, was killed while fighting for the Union during the late war. Mrs. McGill moved here fifty-five years ago, and her husband died in 1857. She had suffered from asthma for ten years, but attended to her own household work up to the time of her death.

Although in her eighty-eighth year her memory and hearing were excellent until the last. The evening of her death she asked her attendant if the clock had been wound. It was the same hour at which she had attended to that duty for more than a half century. She was strictly honest and very accommodating to friends and neighbors and an excellent nurse. Her services were much sought after in sickness. She was a model housekeeper and always looked after the minutest details. Her neatness and cleanliness were proverbial in Moundsville. She had been a consistent member of the M. E. church for thirty years. Everybody knew and loved old Mother McGill. All her living children were at her bedside when she died. The interment was in Brookside cemetery.

Thomas Higgins' house caught fire from a coal rolling off the grate and igniting the carpet. The timely arrival of a member of the family saved the building and, in fact, a whole row of frame buildings which are built solidly against it.

Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Mathews will leave for Central City to-day, where they will visit friends for a few days and then proceed to Florida, where they will spend the winter.

Sparks from a fire in the residence of ex-Mayor Purdy started a fire in an upstairs room early Friday morning, but it was discovered before much damage had been done.

Mrs. Charleston, who was here attending the funeral of her mother, Mrs. McGill, will return to her home in Cincinnati Wednesday.

The members of council have located the thirty fire-plugs which the water works company is to put in for the use of the city.

Rev. S. H. Doyle, president of the state Christian Endeavor organization, has returned from a meeting at Clarksville.

Mrs. Meta Bowley, who for several years has held the position of chief clerk at the postoffice, has resigned.

J. C. Simpson, member of council from the Third ward, has resigned. No successor has yet been appointed.

Dr. Edward Mathers, of Midland City, Ohio, has been the guest of friends here.

B. O. Tomlinson, who has been at Philippi for several weeks, is home.

Mrs. Mary Parkinson, of Ottawa, Kansas, is visiting friends here.

Samuel Riggs has been quite ill, but is reported better.

MARTIN'S FERRY.
Haps and Mishaps in the Thriving City Across the River.

On Saturday evening a meeting of committees from the different secret societies in Martin's Ferry was held in the hall of Belmont City Lodge No. 221, I. O. O. F., to take steps to help the poor of Martin's Ferry. Three lodges of Mechanics, two lodges of Odd Fellows and the Knights of Pythias, Foresters and Knights of the Golden Eagle were represented, and it was decided to hold a musical and literary entertainment between Christmas and New Year's.

Last night the Laughlin Nail Company shipped another large load of nails. There were 12,000 kegs on the barge, in charge of Capt. John Carr, taken by the steamer John D. Lewis. It was Captain Carr who had such an exciting experience with a large load of nails here last winter in the ice.

Plate mill No. 11 in the Etna-Standard, which runs single turn, made its best week last week. Nearly 47,000 pounds of plate iron were made on two different days, or about 91,000 pounds in the two days. Mill No. 9 in the same works will be rebuilt with a view to saving, fuel, labor, etc.

Council failed to meet on Saturday night. The members present were Henderson, Wernig and James. Since the bids for lighting the city with electricity were opened Jolly Bros. offer to furnish arch lights at $85 per year, $5 less than the lowest bidder.

Burglars were around again Saturday night. They tried to get into the residences of Dr. J. M. Blackford, Dr. A. R. Ong and E. C. Boyd, all on North Fourth street, and entered the kitchen of Rev. A. E. Brownlee's residence, near by.

The natural gas company sent J. A. Dickson a bill for $6 for gas consumed in his Fourth street property in November and the house had not been occupied for sixty days. Fehrenbach Bros. paid $31 for the month.

William Lupton has removed his insurance office into the room in the Hobensack block, formerly occupied by R. B. Reinick, and has one of the finest offices in the city.

Two drunks were arrested on Saturday night. One of them had a certificate of deposit on a Steubenville bank for $200 and a pocket full of money besides.

Next Sunday morning Rev. Robins will preach in the M. E. church to the G. A. R., Mechanics and Knights of the Golden Eagle.

Rev. Mr. Robins, of the M. E. church, exchanged pulpits with Rev. C. B. Hawthorn, of Bridgeport, yesterday.

Mrs. E. W. Fowler, of East Liverpool, is visiting her brothers, Edward and Stephen Houghton.

Great Sachem of the Red Men, John Stamm, spent Sunday with T. J. Irwin, the Great Chief.

Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Exley, sr., are both quite sick. Benjamin Exley, jr., is improving.

The King's Daughters will hold a general meeting in the Presbyterian church this evening.

It requires good eyes to walk in Martin's Ferry while she is without electric light.

William Clark has returned from a week's visit to his daughters in the east.

Thomas Watkins, who has been quite sick, was better yesterday.

Leo Morris led the Y. M. C. A. meeting yesterday afternoon.

Everett Morris is home from Scio college, sick.

Robert Smith, of Etnaville, is on the sick list.

William Arbaugh is able to be out again.

Out in a Blizzard.

Mr. J. P. Blaize, an extensive real estate dealer in Des Moines, Iowa, narrowly escaped one of the severest attacks of pneumonia while in the northern part of that state during a recent blizzard, says the Saturday Review. Mr. Blaize had occasion to drive several miles during the storm and was so thoroughly chilled that he was unable to get warm, and inside of an hour after his return he was threatened with a severe case of pneumonia or lung fever. Mr. Blaize sent to the nearest drug store and got a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, of which he had often heard, and took a number of large doses. He says the effect was wonderful and in a short time he was breathing quite easily. He kept on taking the medicine and the next day was able to come to Des Moines. Mr. Blaize regards his cure as simply wonderful.

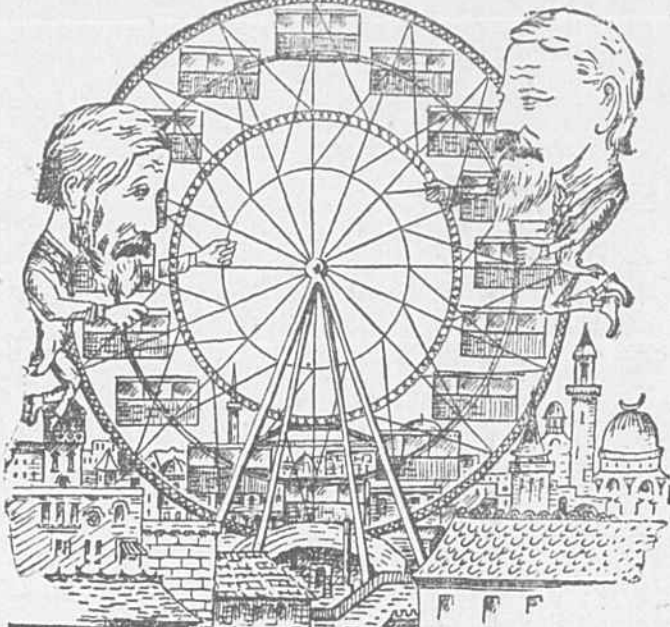

KNOWLEDGE

Brings comfort and improvement and tends to personal enjoyment when rightly used. The many, who live better than others and enjoy life more, with less expenditure, by more promptly adapting the world's best products to the needs of physical being, will attest the value to health of the pure liquid laxative principles embraced in the remedy, Syrup of Figs.

Its excellence is due to its presenting in the form most acceptable and pleasant to the taste, the refreshing and truly beneficial properties of a perfect laxative, effectually cleansing the system, dispelling colds, headaches and fevers and permanently curing constipation. It has given satisfaction to millions and met with the approval of the medical profession, because it acts on the Kidneys, Liver and Bowels without weakening them and it is perfectly free from every objectionable substance.

Syrup of Figs is for sale by all druggists in 50c and $1 bottles, but it is manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co. only, whose name is printed on every package, also the name, Syrup of Figs, and being well informed, you will not accept any substitute if offered.
